

Summer Solstice Message:

Use the Magenta Color Codes to bathe Earth in Undifferentiated Love & Light

It is the Collective Consciousness of the All That Is.

As you gather marking the auspicious time in the evolvement of humanity and the Earth, it is important that as individual divine expressions that you recognize the creative power that you hold in this evolution.

Call forth, at this moment, the magenta color codes, filling the Earth energy with these magenta codes, filling the Earth plane at that differentiated level, with the color codes of the magenta frequencies of the vast Light emanations of a Collective Source energy.

As the Earth is filled with these codes, the impact is magnified a hundredfold for humanity and for Earth to come into the fullness of that Undifferentiated Love energetic template that is so appropriate at this time. It alters the differentiated aspect of the individual, as well as the undifferentiated aspect of the All That Is, on every plane, throughout the Cosmos, having no limitations of time or space, but just the vast complexity of pure Undifferentiated Love energetics. These energetics have no limitation and are the power that will continue as the Earth comes into its purest state as a Christed physical expression of the immense aspects of total Cosmic Ascension.

Each one of you possesses, at that differentiated level, these color codes. For the remainder of 2016, they will powerfully influence every creative effort that humanity puts forth altering Earth's expression and humanity's inspired impact on all of the cosmic realms of Creation forever. This beloveds is the creative power that you hold in the very being of who you are as a Christed expression that is no longer completely differentiated, but that operates simultaneously in both expressions, undifferentiated and differentiated. It is accurately and precisely directed appropriately, each time it is used.

You are the blessed embodiment of Christ consciousness. The veils of forgetfulness have been lifted, in this moment, through the magenta coding, for you to see that clearly, for you to experience it fully. It will never elude you again. The consciousness will always remain so that you will create forthrightly with accuracy, proficiency, and the great Love expression of the magenta codes which are an integral part of this transformation that has begun. It has no completion. It is ever evolving through the creation of every individual expression, as well as at a collective level. You stand at the pivotal point of change, in ways that are not fully comprehended in this moment, and will only be seen as it is experienced.

You are the blessed expression of the Source of the All That Is.
